

FAITHLESS WIFE LEFT HER HUSBAND

Eloped With Her Brother-in-Law and Took Child With Her.

HUSBAND ON THE TRACK

Traced the Trio From Jacksonville to St. Augustine and Palatka, and Was Told They Came to Gainesville, But No Trace of Them Found Here.

Another example of infidelity has come to light, with the result that Charles Jones of Starke, a news agent on the Seaboard Air Line railway running between Jacksonville and Tampa, is short a wife and child, and he alleges that his brother, Oliver Jones, is guilty of taking them away.

Mr. Jones is a kindly fellow. He has always endeavored to treat everyone right, especially his family; but the trouble arose the latter part of March, when his brother, Oliver, who had been employed as a flagman on the Atlantic Coast Line between Jacksonville and Sanford, came to spend a few days as a guest of his brother, sharing the hospitality of his household.

Ever since his connection with the railroad service, Mr. Jones has been residing happily with his wife and sweet little girl, Eva, two and a half years old, at 1871 West Church street, Jacksonville. There they were contented in each other's company, so the husband and father declared, until Oliver made his appearance. It appears then that the relations were strained, and the result was that Oliver, on Saturday, the last day of March, took the wife and baby away with him.

According to Chas. Jones' story, he traced the trio to St. Augustine, thence to Palatka, where he was informed that on Tuesday of the present week they came to Gainesville. Accompanied by Chief of Police Hagan of Palatka, he came to this city in search of them Friday, but without result, as no trace could be found of them here, and no one had seen any persons answering the description given by the distracted husband.

As will be noted elsewhere in this paper, Mr. Jones has published a description of the parties for whom he is searching, and offers a reward of fifty dollars for their apprehension. It is hardly likely that they are in this city, however, as a thorough search was made by Mr. Jones, Chief of Police Hagan and the officers here. It may be that they came to Gainesville from Palatka, but did not tarry long. It is to be hoped that Mr. Jones will be successful in finding his wife and child, as he is very anxious in regard to the latter.

MOVEMENT IS LIVELY.

Vegetables Going Fast From Micanopy, Evinston and Other Points.

Parties visiting the city from Evinston, Micanopy and other points south state that the vegetable movement continues heavy, the movement of cabbage, lettuce, beets and beans being especially heavy.

"I have never seen the like when it comes to cabbage," remarked a grower who was here. "Notwithstanding the fact that the movement of cabbage is the heaviest I have ever seen in my experience, the price is holding up well, and cabbage have been bringing more as a whole this season than they have brought in many a season before."

A buyer who was sent to this section by his house to purchase cabbage declared Friday that he could not afford to "swap money" for chances, and the price was so high that he had about abandoned the idea of making any purchases of cabbage at all. "We are asked to pay almost as much, if not equally as much, for the stations here, than we can get in the market of the North, and we cannot afford to take the chances," he said.

A comparatively new feature in trucking in this section is the growing of parsley. A shipment of twenty hampers, or baskets, was made from one station on the Gainesville and Gulf, a few days ago, which realized handsome prices. Parsley is destined to become a standard crop among the truckers.

Cures Coughs and Colds.

Mrs. C. Peterson, 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kans., says: "Of all cough remedies Ballard's Horehound Syrup is my favorite. It has done, and will do, that is claimed for it—to speedily cure all coughs and colds—and it is so sweet and pleasant to the taste." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

ELKS' INSTALLATION.

Large Crowd Gathered at This Occasion Thursday Night.

The installation of officers of Gainesville Lodge No. 990, B. P. O. E., was held at the regular meeting Thursday evening, and was one of the most enjoyable and successful social affairs among the secret fraternities which has been held here in some time. A large crowd of Elks congregated for the occasion, as it was evident that the meeting would prove one of unusual interest.

The following officers were installed for the coming term:

Exalted Ruler, Hon. Henry S. Chubb; Esteemed Leading Knight, Robt. E. Davis; Esteemed Lecturing Knight, Rev. Francis H. Craighill; Esteemed Loyal Knight, J. W. Blanding; Secretary, A. M. Cushman; Tyler, Dr. D. B. Morris; Equire, E. A. O'Neill.

The installation services were conducted by Past Exalted Ruler L. C. Lynch, in a most impressive manner.

Rev. S. B. Rogers was reappointed Chaplain of the lodge.

At the conclusion of the installation a delightful spread, consisting of ice cream, strawberries, cake, coffee, etc., was made, and while the members enjoyed themselves Toastmaster W. E. Dow introduced the speakers, who seemed to be possessed as a rule with unusual eloquence and humor upon this occasion. Several good talks were made, principal among which was the address of Exalted Ruler Chubb.

In all the evening was delightfully spent, and every man left the lodge room feeling proud that he was an Elk.

A Delightful Day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fletcher Hill and son, Mrs. Gordon B. Tison and daughter, Martha, and a number of other friends, enjoyed the day on Newnan's lake Thursday, the occasion being a picnic and fish fry.

There were several in the party, and the day was most pleasantly spent.

The fish are plentiful on Newnan's lake now, and are very fine. The party enjoyed a delicious fry, which was prepared by an expert in that line, and altogether everything passed off in a manner which will cause those present to remember the occasion for some time.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as sound as a bell. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

NEWBERRY NEWS.

Narrow Escape of Rouss May—Other News Items of Interest.

Newberry, April 5—L. B. Powell, one of Alachua's prosperous merchants, was in town Thursday.

Mrs. C. D. May and son, Carl, have returned from a pleasant visit to Georgia.

W. J. Hodge of Alachua was in the city Wednesday.

Invitations have been received to the wedding of Miss Maud Graham to Mr. Evans Haile at Gainesville, on April 18th.

R. H. Frazee has been wrestling with chills and fever for several days, but is out again.

Enos Hayes, of Hayes Bros., merchants of Tyler, was a business visitor here Wednesday.

C. D. May spent Friday in Gainesville on business.

Our people are taking advantage of the pretty moonlight nights, and are enjoying many exciting fox chases. Master Rouss May had quite a narrow escape Saturday. He ran out in the street after a ball when he was run down by a horse driven by Mr. Wilkinson, but fortunately escaped with slight injuries and was soon all right.

Postmaster Reid is happy over the change of schedule on the A. C. L., April 15th. He says he can then sleep as late in the morning as most anyone.

The Blue and the Gray.

In the year of 1868 I formed my first acquaintance with Colonel H. F. Dutton. At that time I was conducting one of the largest cotton ginneries in the State, and Col. Dutton saw at once that there was a large field for this business. He approached me as to whether he could join me in buying seed cotton and having it prepared for the Eastern markets. This I consented to do, and we continued in the business together for four years with considerable profit to us both. I then decided to withdraw and begin a foundry and machine business, and the firm of H. F. Dutton & Co. concluded to erect their own plant, which stands today as one of the oldest and largest cotton ginneries in the State. I have been manager of their machinery nearly twenty years and in this period have never had an accident to the plant, myself or any employee. I am now thankful to turn this plant over to the new owners in as good condition and more than that, in a better shape than I found it nearly twenty years ago. In writing this, I do it for the purpose of expressing my high appreciation of Col. Dutton and his partners, for their unwavering kindness and thoughtful acknowledgments of my work, shown me during my connection with them during so long a period, and our relations are an example to all, how the Blue and the Gray can successfully fraternize. My only wish now is that the new firm may have the same business success. JAMES I. DOIG.

Is The Moon Inhabited?

Science has proven that the moon has an atmosphere which makes life in some form possible on that satellite; but not for human beings, who have a hard enough time on this earth of ours, especially those who don't know that Electric Bitters cure headache, biliousness, malaria, chills and fever, jaundice, dyspepsia, dizziness, torpid liver, kidney complaints, general debility and female weaknesses. Unequaled as a general tonic and appetizer for weak persons and especially for the aged. It induces sound sleep. Fully guaranteed by all druggists. Price only 50c.

Mr. Haas Complimentary.

Jacob R. Haas, a prominent real estate man of Atlanta, Ga., was among the visitors to this city yesterday. Mr. Haas was very deeply impressed with the city and the class of buildings which are going up here, and expressed an opinion that Gainesville will continue to be the leading interior city of Florida. "You have no idea of how much good the University location is doing you already," he said. "Gainesville is known and recognized for its religious, moral and educational sentiments, and such is bound to prove of great value to your people. This is my first visit to Gainesville, but I have heard of the town very favorably for the past year or more."

The Sun is glad to know that Mr. Haas feels so kindly toward the city, as he is in a position to accomplish considerable good for this section.

We Tell

We have nothing to conceal! No secrets to hide! We publish the formulas of all our medicines. You will find these in Ayer's Almanac for 1906. If you do not have a copy we will gladly send you one. Then show the formulas to your doctor. If he does not approve, then do not buy; if he approves, then buy, and keep these standard family medicines on hand.
